The Cloverdale Business Improvement Association (BIA) has a lot of projects on the plan for this upcoming year.

At the BIA's annual general meeting Monday night (Feb. 25), the organization outlined the plan for 2019 — which includes several projects that have been in the works for years, not decades.

A Highway 10 beautification project, for instance, will include new landscaping and gateway signs along the BIA's stretch of highway.

The project is a partnership with the City of Surrey. BIA president Bob Moore. "We're going to be a more advanced BIA, to spread the message across the territory," he said

Cloverdale's Coldest Night of the Year fundraiser was a huge success this year. Hundreds of walkers came together for the Saturday evening event, raising more than $97,000 — far surpassing this year's goal of $75,000.

The Coldest Night of the Year event is a national fundraising walk for homelessness, held in communities across the country.

Since 2011, the fundraiser has raised more than $21 million for local charities that help people who struggling with poverty.

Cloverdale Community Kitchen, which feeds hundreds of people in its community. More than 12,000 hot, nutritious meals are served at the kitchen annually, providing food and a sense of community to many in the area.

The kitchen runs out of Pacific Community Church, which is where the Feb. 23 fundraiser kicked off.
