

THE CLOVERDALE
Reporter
YOUR WEEKLY CLOVER VALLEY NEWSPAPER
NOVEMBER 1, 2017 ♦ WWW.CLOVERDALEREPORTER.COM ♦ 604-575-2400

Christmas Hamper finds a home for the holidays

Samantha Anderson
Cloverdale Reporter

The Cloverdale Christmas Hamper Program has found a home for the holidays at the Cloverdale Fairgrounds.

The hamper program, now in its 26th year, gathers donations from local schools and businesses and delivers hampers of food to about 600 Cloverdale residents each Christmas.

Last week, organizer Matthew Campbell told the Cloverdale Reporter that the program was looking for warehouse space to use for about a month in November and December.

This week, Campbell is happy to report that the hamper program has been offered the use of the Agriplex at the Cloverdale Fairgrounds for a week in December at no charge, as part of the Cloverdale Rodeo's Youth Initiative Fund. "We're very excited

Continued on A8

Heritage bo

ember

Mem
2/yr